It was feared that there was a danger of sacrilege should a drop of wine, which had been transubstantiated into the blood of Christ, accidentally fall to the ground from the lips of a communicant. It was also about manhood, honor, authority, education, and political action. It will be a group discussion about the same questions that I have posed during the project and also a reflection on the project. The concert will also feature jazz ensembles from the jazz program at UKZN.
